

PROPHETIC WORDS

(extracts from prophecies given up to June 2006)

A Call to Repentance

I have blessed your land over the centuries. I have given you visions of truth and righteousness, but now you have become a wayward people. My people have allowed the world to enter my temple. I speak to the Church and say, 'Repent.'

Open your eyes to see the terrible thing which is happening in your land today. Do not any longer deny it. Your nation has turned away from me and gone astray with the approval of the Church. It has passed laws which are an offence against me, while the voices of your leaders have been either silent or heard in approval.

The enemy's plan is to deceive, but I have sent my Spirit of Truth. Awake to the grace I have poured upon you. There is no greater power than the truth, for I am the truth. My people, I give you freedom. I ask you to choose this day. Who do you really love? Who do you really serve?

You have denied me. You have displaced me. Turn away from your obsessions. Turn away from your false idols. Turn away from your ruling passions. Turn away from your darkness and look towards the light. Gather together and confess your sins.

Do you not see the misery and suffering of so many around you? Why are you silent? This nation, once a robust and strong people, is far from me. Now is the time to abandon your fearfulness and proclaim the truth with boldness.

These are critical days and I need those who will respond to me and who will obey without questioning. I will lead you to a repentance of that which is unworthy of a servant of Christ. I will guide you how to live if only you turn back to me.

I am raising up the intercessory call in this nation. Through the prayers of the saints, the life of God is beginning to shoot up in different places.

Consecrate your lives as a living sacrifice to the Lord. Return to me that I may pour out my blessing upon you. A spirit of repentance and a desire for holiness will bring about an outpouring of the Spirit of God and a transformation of the Church and the nation.
