(extracts from prophecies given up to June 2006)

Encouragement and Hope

Britain I love you. I am with you and no one can snatch you out of My hand. Rise up now and recognise the enemy in your midst - the forces of secularism and false spirituality. You cannot confront this enemy in your own strength, but I am able. I, and I alone, am able to overcome the spiritual powers of evil that have taken root in your land, redeem this nation, and bring light and life and joy into the lives of the people.

I am raising up a people of prayer who will demolish the strongholds of the enemy and proclaim My victory to the far corners of the earth. It's time for the church to wake from slumber and arise. Now is the time, while you still have freedom of speech, to witness to the truth and to abandon your fearfulness, your shyness and your reticence and to proclaim the truth with boldness. It is a boldness that I will give you through a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Beacons will begin to burn and flames will be lit across the land, fanned by My Spirit.

The little prayer meetings in towns and villages and city back streets across the land will burn ever more brightly as you seize this window of opportunity that I am presenting before you. Now is the time to come out from the safety of your churches and fellowships to declare My word in the nation, to break out of the shackles of traditionalism and fear of criticism and all the other hindrances that prevent you from being part of the people of God through whom He will redeem this nation.

Now is the time to prepare for the harvest. It shall be plentiful. On the streets of London, on the streets of Birmingham, on the streets of Bristol, you will witness people repenting and coming to Jesus. I want the UK to know that I have not forgotten you. I have always had a remnant in the UK and the tears of this remnant have reached up to Me. I am coming back to the UK.

I am coming back in power and in My glory. No one will recognize this is the same UK. I'm sending help for the UK from all over the earth. Nations shall come into Britain and bless the nation of the UK. I tell you, there is hope: there are signs and movements of change. The scales are beginning to lean towards justice. Faithful intercession will tip the scales even more in the direction of the Lord. I shall cause My voice to be heard; I shall enable you to look upon My face and see My love for you.
