Praying as JESUS taught us

Saturday, 9th June 2012
10.30a.m. – 3.30 p.m.

Emmanuel Christian Centre
Lloyd Street
Llandudno LL30 2YA

Maranatha Groups in the North West and Wales invite you to a regional gathering of Praise, Worship and Healing. Jesus says that our first priority in prayer should be to ask God to make His name holy and build up His glory. We are to pray, "Do what you have to do in the world to get your name and reputation filled with glory" Many people feel that this is an acclamation – 'Your name IS holy' – but it is not. It is a prayer. We are asking the Holy God to take care of His own reputation and glory. But what would it mean for us if God answered this prayer?

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Pentecostalists - Anglicans - Catholics - Baptists - Salvationists - Methodists - Orthodox - New Churches - URC.

Directions: Emmanuel Centre is next to the Town Hall in Llandudno. There is limited parking within the Centre grounds, on-street parking on some streets nearby, and a pay car-park about 5 minutes away.

Registration on day - Suggested gift £3. Pensioners & students £1. Unwaged free. Drinks provided (please bring sandwiches). Note: there will not be any children's facilities.
