

PROPHETIC WORDS (4)

God's Warning to the Churches and the Nation

My compassion and mercy for the lost in this land is boundless but I cannot withhold My righteous judgment any longer. Don't be sad! It is a friend who warns, not an enemy. There is a remnant who have sought my face and interceded for the church and the nation, and for their sakes I have withheld my hand of severe judgment. Whereas once My hands were around your country in protection, now are My hands changed, and they are above and pointing to judgment. I am very angry with the church in this nation. My anger is mingled with grief because My repeated warnings and pleas for repentance have been largely ignored, even trampled upon. Men have left the path I showed them long ago, determined to follow their own wrong ways. Now trouble is coming. What will happen could have been avoided if you had turned back to me, but you would not, you stubbornly refused to listen.

Therefore expect to see the outcome upon the earth, with uprisings here, tensions there with violence and bloodshed, with strife of many kinds. I am about to send a strong scorching wind upon My people, I will blow upon all that is raised up by the might of man, built in the power of the flesh. I will shake the foundation of your nation, your churches, your lives. I am the Lord of heaven and earth and I will shake the foundations until you acknowledge My leadership. Each disaster will judge and smash an idol that is worshipped by the world system of Babylon. I will then show Myself as the one true God over them all. The defence of man's pride will be broken - the pride of life, the trust in the power of wealth and position, will not save. It will come, the storm will come. Some of My people speak of revival and peace; revival may bring a lull in the storm, but no peace can come upon a world and a system, which is godless and corrupt, which owes no allegiance to the Prince of Peace.

When you see the destruction, division and lifeless structures of churches and organizations, you will know that it was I who sent the wind. My true church whom I know and treasure will suffer intense persecution from the apostate church and will have to go underground. As the wrath of God is directed against false shepherds, traitors who plot in secret, leaders who have reveled in their power, many shall be toppled from their positions. Do not become complacent and sympathetic with the enemy that is in your land. If you do, your land will be overtaken. You are on the verge of being overtaken by false gods now. Islam will come, persecute, kill, wreak havoc among you. It will come upon you unless you repent, stand up and be counted, speak out, act for what is right.

My holy ones are aghast at the sin that has become so rampant within this nation, a nation once great. The spirit of harlotry is deep within your land. You have substituted religion for My Presence. You despised My people Israel and slaughtered them in a rage that reached to heaven after robbing the Jewish people and throwing them out of nation after nation. How can you escape the wrath to come? You cannot. Beware of any teaching that is selfish and appeals to your lusts and feeds the love of money in your lives. THAT teaching does not come from heaven. That is not My voice. My blessings come through seeking first the Kingdom and My righteousness, not from heaping riches upon yourself while the rest of the world starves to death and dies and goes to hell because of your selfishness and greed. You will see when you stand before Me what the TRUE RICHES are.

I am saying this to you so that you will not be dismayed or unduly upset by what you see and hear. Trouble will come, but I shall be kind and spare those I have chosen from the ills that befall many; you will be blessed if you stay close to My heart. In the shaking of the very fabric of society, for most, there shall be great rejoicing at the coming of the new order, at their release from the lies, deception and bondages of Satan. It is My desire that, from the midst of persecution, the gospel will go forth in the power of the Holy Spirit and many will turn to Me in repentance and faith. After each disaster, I will pour out My grace and bring in a mighty harvest of souls for My kingdom.

I present My church with a choice: seek Me and live eternally in My glory, or be swallowed up in apostasy, deception and death. Turn back to Me, My wayward children, fall down in penance before Me and I shall hear your cries. Leave Me aside, and worse will befall the world you know and believe in.

OVM 4 – Jan 2008

This is a 'One Voice Message' collated by the Maranatha Community from prophecies received by Christians throughout the land.